KIN TO OLD NED SIZEMORE

This will be a brief mention of some of the relatives of "Old Ned Sizemore". The study has been conducted from the records of the United States Court of Claims, which met from 1906 to 1909.

"On May 18, 1905, the U.S. Court of Claims decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees in suits brought as the result of grievances arising from treaty violations. Congress appropriated a million dollars for compensation and the task of determining the eligibility of those to receive a share of the funds to those persons alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish that they were a member of the Cherokee Nation at the time of the treaties or were descended from such persons who were members. About 45 thousand applications were received, representing claims by approximately 90 thousand persons. Many of the applications were rejected due to insufficient information or questions about whether they actually resided in the Cherokee Nation in 1835. The final roll has become known as the Miller Roll, which was approved by the court on March 15, 1910; entitling 30,820 persons to a share of the fund. Of the total; 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi and 3,436 east of the Mississippi." *1

Among the people whose claims were rejected because they were not able to establish fact of descent from a person who was a party to the treaty of 1835-6 and 1846, were about 2,000 Sizemore Claimants, rep-representing approximately 5,000 individuals. "These applicants claimed through Ned(Edward), John (Old Dr. Johnny Gourd), Joseph, and William Sizemore..... None of them appears to have been living within the Cherokee Domain at the date of the treaty of 1835-6. From the applications, affidavits, and testimony, it appears that Ned, John, and Joseph Sizemore were brothers, but the exact date or place of birth could not be definitely determined. It is probable, however, that they were born someplace between 1740 and 1760. Some accounts fix the place as Halifax County, Virginia." *2

I do not know exactly what kin William A. Sizemore was to Old Ned Sizemore; but, from research done by several people, it would appear that Old Ned was father of this John Sizemore who was mentioned above. Some say that John married Molly Gregory, and that their son, Edward James (Ned) married Annie Blevins. This has been determined to be the parents of our William A. Sizemore, who married Mandy Moore.

I am sorry to state that I need more research to determine whether this is the right interpretation or not. I did not obtain this information from the claims and am trying to base this report on them. What I intend to do is acquaint anyone interested with my findings regarding the descendants of William A. Sizemore, whose family migrated to what became Lamar County, Alabama. I believe this family may, at one time, have lived near Wilkesboro, North Carolina, on a creek called "Blackwater" that ran into Clinch River in Lee County, Virginia and that William somehow got to Franklin County, Tennessee before his death.

(Page 28 of "Cherokee Blood II" by Shirley Hoskins, states that "Most Sizemore Cases were considered to be Creek Indians", but I believe most of them were rejected because they had lived so long away from the reservations.)

Based on just the data contained in the Cherokee Claims, I cannot say that the Statement on the previous page concerning the kinship of William A. Sizemore to Old Ned Sizemore is accurate. But, based on what I have been able to learn from other researchers, it appears that Old Ned Sizemore was great grandfather of William A. Sizemore.

I will gladly share what I have copied from the Cherokee Claims with anyone who would like to help determine the ancestry of William. Of course, I don't have copies of the whole 2,000 Sizemore claims; but many.

William A. Sizemore

William A. Sizemore was probably born in Halifax County, Virginia; but, I do not know his birthdate. Several claims state his death date as 1819 or 1822 in Middle Tennessee. He married Mary "Mandy" Moore. *3 According to the claim of Samuel B. Sizemore #34232, they had seven sons. If so, possibly Edward and Owen were their children, also. The ones I am pretty sure of being children of William A. and Mary Sizemore are: Daniel; Mary; Felin; Amanda A.; James Moore; Sarah; Martha L.; and William A.:

Daniel Sizemore was born about 1800 in Franklin County, Tennessee. He married Anna Elizabeth Hankins. Anna, daughter of John Hankins, was born November 11, 1802 in Tn. Dan died on June 9, 1850 in what became Lamar

County, Alabama and Anna's death date was September 20, 1882. I have twelve children listed for them: Andrew Jackson; John William; James Monroe; Joel Hutson; Elizabeth C.; Mary; Daniel Henry; Felin Franklin; John William; Thomas Henry; Amanda A.; and Adline Sabina: *4,5,and 6

Andrew Jackson Sizemore was born July 18, 1824 in Marion County, Alabama and died in July of 1843.

John William was probably born December 18, 1825; but I have him listed twice, because one report gives his date of birth as 1893. He never married and died on January 15, 1901.

James Monroe Sizemore was born July 30, 1827 and married Mary E. Black, daughter of J.C. and Elizabeth Black. James Monroe died January 31, 1893 in Alabama. Their children:

Anna E, born Jan. 1, 1857, died 1863.

Mary Frances, (June 28, 1859-1861).

Martha Louvandy, born May 25, 1862. In her claim #17313, she stated that she was born in Moscow, Alabama and married Oscar L. Corbett. They lived Route 2, Fayette, Al. Her children were: Frances (Jan. 20, 1893); James E. (Dec. 22, 1894); William J. (Feb. 10, 1896); Nettie A. (May 24, 1898); Eliza P. (June 14, 1900); Sarah A. (Aug. 8, 1902); and Cassy L. Third daughter of Daniel and Anna Sizemore was Adline or Anglyne Sabrina, who was born in 1847 and married Phillip Woods. Three of her sons were Phillip, Glen, and James Thomas.

I do not know about William A. and Mary Moore Sizemore's daughter, Polly.

Felin Sizemore, son of William A. and Mary Moore Sizemore, was probably born in Franklin County, Tennessee and married Sarah Terry. His son, William Marion, was born in 1836 and married Minerva Jane Hankins. She was born in 1843 and they lived in Marion Co, Al.

I'm not sure which of William and Mary's children was born next; possibly Amanda A. Sizemore, who was born in Franklin County, Tennessee and married Nathaniel D. Brandon. Nathaniel was born about 1805 in Virginia and his estate was probated on March 13, 1854 in Fayette County, Alabama. His son, Daniel, was mentioned in his will and according to the Cherokee claims, Daniel may have been living in Indian Territory in 1906. Amanda and Nathaniel Brandon's children, besides Daniel, were Rebecca, Anna, and Lucetta:

Rebecca S. was born about 1832 in Alabama and married Matthew P. Newell about 1850. Matthew, son of James and Sarah Boyd Newell, was born September 17, 1827. Matthew Newell served in Company C, 10th Ala. Calvary, Confederate States of America. After Rebecca's death on Sept. 26, 1885, he married Sarah Caroline Kirk on March 31, 1887. He died on October 16, 1906 and is buried at Watson Cemetery in Franklin County, Alabama. The children of Rebecca and Matthew Newell:

Mary Jane Newell was born Dec. 18, 1852 to Rebecca and Matthew. She married Moses J. Graves on Nov. 30, 1876. Moses, son of George A. and Nancy J. Graves, was born about 1848, and was killed in his store and postoffice in Jewell, Alabama on July 7, 1889. He is buried at Union Chapel Cemetery in Lamar Co., Ala. Lee Roy was born Oct. 30, 1850 in South Carolina and died on Jan. 18, 1929 in Franklin County, Alabama. Martha died Jan. 28, 1924 and they are buried at Watson Cemetery. Mrs. Flossie Cagle, their granddaughter, graciously allowed me to copy the bible inscriptions for their children: Malinda, Mandy, Annie, Evaline, Tiny, Meda, Danil, and Matthew Jim. Matthew Jim, (July 19, 1882-Oct. 22, 1959) married Mary Louise Warhurst and they are Flossie's parents.

in May of 1888; but at the time of the Cherokee Claims, his sisters stated that he was living in the Cherokee Nation.

Annie Newell Hankins did not give these later generations in her claim, of course; since it is dated Jan. 4, 1907. Her Eastern Cherokee Claim #9507 states that her grandmother, Amanda Sizemore Brandon, was born in Franklin County, Tennessee. The names and dates given for members of her family are some that I have collected over the years on Robert's immediate family and would not be considered a part of the Cherokee Claims at all.

Annie was the youngest of Rebecca Brandon Newell's thirteen children.

Rebecca's sisters, as listed in her father's will, were Anna and Lucetta (Lucy):

Annie was born about 1842 in Alabama and married Robert N. Collins. Robert was born about 1835. According to the 1870 census, their children were: James A., born 1860; George N., born 1862; Henry L., born 1866; Mary E., born 1868; and Peter, born 1870.

Lucetta (Lucy) was born about 1844 and married John M. Lawrence. She was still in her mother's home in 1860 and was present at the closing of her father's estate, after Amanda died in 1888.

Amanda A. Sizemore Brandon's brother, James Moore Sizemore, was born before 1810. He, of course, was son of William A. and Mandy Moore Sizemore. James married Sarah Baker (according to family group sheet of Celia Phillips. At least, her name was Sarah on the 1850 Dickson County, Tn. census record; and she is listed as being born in Georgia.) From the census record and from Samuel B's claim, I have compiled a list of the children of James Moore and Sarah: R.B.; William S.; Mary B (1825); Rufus H. (1832); Benson C. (1833); Green M. (1835); James M. (1837); Daniel L. (1840); Jones W. (1842); Sarah A.T. (1844); D.C.; Martha W.W. (1847); Samuel B. (1849). James Moore Sizemore was a minister and lived in Dickson County, Tennessee.

William A. and Mandy Moore Sizemore's daughter, Sarah, was born about 1811 in Tennessee and married Samuel Brown. She and Sam had 7 children and she died in 1870. The names are from the 1850 and 1860 Marion County, Al. census records and the various claims: Dacus (1834) married Nathan Johnson; William (1836); Thomas (1838); John (1840); Mary Jane (1852) who married a Stanford; Abigail (1854) and Elizabeth (1859).

William and Mandy's daughter, Martha Sizemore, was born about 1815 in Tennessee and married John G. Wright. They, with their 5 children, are listed in the 1850 Marion Co, Al. census. John died in 1863 and Martha died in 1879. Their family: Peyton (1836), who died in 1900; Nancy C. (1839); Mary E. (1841), married Brunson Hollis. Brunson, born 1849 in Ms., was son of Berry and Mattie L. Hollis. Their children were Martha L. (June 12, 1869) who married John M. Sizemore; Nancy Jane (Mar. 19, 1870-May 13, 1884); Margaret

Her sister, Amanda (1848-1874) married a Terry.

Next son of William A. Sizemore and his wife, Mandy, had his father's name. William A. Jr. was born about 1816 in Tn. and married Martha E. Barker. According to the 1850 Marion Co., Al. census, and Annie Roden's claim, Martha was born about 1828 in Alabama. William died in 1869 and Martha died in 1908. Their 3 children:

William Ira, married Mary L. Taylor, daughter of Allen and Nancy Taylor. They had 8 children. Mary died Apr. 15, 1892 and William Ira died Aug. 5, 1897 or 1899. (According to Virginia Sizemore of Smithville, Ms., William A. Sizemore is buried at Old Bethany Cemetery in Lamar County, Al. Virginia's husband is Paul Allen Sizemore, great grandson of William A. and Martha E. Sizemore.) Oldest of William I. and Mary Sizemore's children was William A., born June 29, 1870. He married Rozeta Sizemore, daughter of James M. and Mary E. Black Sizemore. Rozeta filed claim #14467 and William A. filed #14473. They must have lived between Beaverton and Guin, Alabama at time of claims; Second child of William Ira and Mary, John M., was born on Sept. 17, 1872 and married (1) Sarah F. Smith. Their children were Mary E. (1897); Murry R. (1899); Walter Lee (1901); George W. (1903). On John M.'s claim for the children, he said, "Sary was not related to the Indians". John married (2) Martha L. Hollis, daughter of Brunson and Mary E. Wright Hollis. Martha was born on June 12, 1869. Their children: J.B. (1904) and Alford L. (May 4, 1906); Third child of William Ira and Mary L. Sizemore was Nancy (Jan. 13, 1873-Oct. 8, 1890). Fourth was Wilson (June 14, 1875); Fifth, Thomas Burton (Aug. 4, 1877); Sixth, George Jerman (Aug. 5, 1879); Seventh, Andrew J. (July 5, 1883); Eighth, Robert M. (July 4, 1885) whose wife was Maggie.

Oldest daughter of William A. Sizemore and his wife, Martha E. Barker Sizemore, was Amanda S. (Nov. 7, 1851) who married D.L. Trim.

Younger daughter of William A. and Martha was Annie E. (Sept. 30, 1853) who married W.S. Roden.

Amanda Trim and Annie Roden lived in Lamar County, Alabama.

Youngest daughter of William A. and Mandy Moore Sizemore was Nancy. She died in Lamar County, Alabama in 1896; So I believe that Mandy probably died in Alabama, also.
